We continue to advertise in the Cape Cod Chronicle and the Cape Codder through October. Please talk this up with your friends and neighbors and consider inviting them to join you at Mass some Saturday. Also, please be aware of new people who may join us and be sure to help them feel welcome.

Prayer of determination in the face of adversity

, often heard in African American churches: "O Lord, in this time of uncertainty, strengthen us where we are weak, build us up where we are torn down, and prop us up on every leaning side."

DENNY RIPLEY – MEMORIAL SERVICE

Thursday, Aug. 2nd, at 11am.

Some of you will remember Denise (Denny) Ripley, who was a parishioner with us for many years.
Denny was a gifted actress and supporter of theater throughout her life, and she shared those gifts with our parish community. She moved to Florida several years ago to be near family, but she specifically requested a Memorial Service at our parish, and her family is traveling here to meet her wishes. Please come if you are able.
